Barbara Sue (Venable) Shaber, 69, of Flushing Michigan, died on March 8, 2018 at Heartland Health Care Center-Fostrian. She was born on April 8, 1948 in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, daughter of Alva and Mable (York) Venable. She was a 1966 graduate of Clio Area High School. She attended Bible College in Walnut Ridge, Arkansas majoring in history and minoring in religious education. She had felt called to be a missionary in Africa. Due to continued health issues she never saw that dream come true, she always remained positive and found other ways to serve. She served as a Sunday School Teacher in various churches she attended over the years. She enjoyed helping others. Through the years she enjoyed baby sitting for friends and family. She also worked in an adult group home for a time period as a caregiver.

Barbara always enjoyed crafts such as crocheting and knitting. Through the years she shared her crafting skills with others including family, friends, and various programs to include the Genesee County Mental Health and the Vista Drop in Center in Flint Michigan. Music was also a major part of her life as she enjoyed gospel and country music, and singing at church.

Barbara always found strength through faith in God, especially through the hard times. During her later years in life she continued to enjoy bible study and attending church services at HCR, Fostrian. She was proud to lead the residents in a study group called, "Daily Bread with Barb". She championed the task of ensuring that residents had copies of the religious study books "Our Daily Bread".

Barbara's family would like to say thank you for the care and service provided to her while a resident at HCR Fostrian who all became part of her family over the last eight years. Also to McLaren Hospice as they made her last few days as compassionate as possible.

Survivors include her son, Charles (Sarah) Venable of Clio Michigan, five grandchildren, Mason, Grace, Isaac, Lucas and Bethany Venable, Brothers James Venable of Millington, MI, Robert Venable of Annapolis, MO, Dale Venable of Clio, MI, sister Adeline (Joe) Logie of Jacksonville, FL and sister in law Martha (Bucky) Buxton, of Clio, MI.
