“ *We are so so very sad about losing Bea. She was a great friend to me and my family. I told her things that I have not told anyone else. My kids loved her and we always had a great time talking and sharing.
I am praying for all of this family because I know how close you all were.
Bea was truly a wonderful person and she will be missed.
If I can do anything I will be happy to.
In Bea's Loving Memory,

“ To the Lewis Family, my deepest sympathy are with you all during this very difficult time. I was deeply saddened to hear of Bea's passing. I remember her pretty smile and laugh. I know that she was a bright spot in your lives and that she will be sadly missed by all. May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared, comfort you now and in the days ahead.

“ First of all my condolences go out to the family. Especially her son J.J., Her dad L.C., and her man Bob. I am hurting right now, because I feel that I didn't get the chance to say good-bye. I didn't get to go to the funeral. No one knew how to contact me. I didn't know that Bea had passed away, but she was heavy on my mind on Monday 11-2-2009 so I called her cell phone and her phone was disconnected. I called her sister Rosie and she told me that she had just buried Bea. That she passed away on 10-23-2009. I couldn't believe what I had just heard. The hurt and pain just took over and I cried, and I'm really hurt because I have known Bea for a very long time. She knows that if I would have known I would have been there that was my girl. She was so full of life, and crazy! She was the only one that I would let talk bad about me to my face, (in front of other people that I did not know), and get away with it. She trusted me, and I trusted her. She was there for the birth of my first child, and now the Lamaze baby is 10 years old. Just like Dana I have shared things with Bea that I wouldn't share with anyone else, and her with me. I have been there for her thru good times and bad times and her for me. She is a great person and she will truly be missed by me, but I am so happy that Jimode is with his momma again. This is there time together now, and that is truly a celebration! She missed him so much. I will truly miss her. She was my best friend and I loved her like she was my sister and she will always be a part of my heart. She wanted me to know, and now I know. I will be strong for her, but she will be sadly missed. I know that I will see her again at my homecoming.

Love always,
