“ Words can not express how much my Grandmother, Bea, meant to me. She was a beautiful person, inside and out. She always had such a sweet and gentle spirit. She was truly loved by myself, my family, and so many other people. Even though I am deeply saddened at this time, I find comfort in knowing that she is with her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. I will miss her terribly, but I know I will surely see her again someday.

Adrienne Woolfolk - August 18, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ What can I say about Bea? So much can be said, but I don't know where to begin. She has always been a part of my life. She has taken care of me from the very beginning. She was a very loving and pleasant person. She never complained and just always seemed to be enjoying life to the fullest. I will miss Bea dearly, but I know she is gone on to a much better place now and I know I will see her again one day.

“ Prayers and Sympathy to Sister Mary Woolfof and Family. Love Lives On Those we love are never really lost to us--we feel them in so many special ways--through friends they always cared about and dreams they left behind, in beauty that they added to our days...in words of wisdom we still carry with us and memories that never will be gone...Those we love are never really lost to us--for everywhere their special love lives on.

I shall never forget Mother Temple's beautiful smile and her joyous laughter.
