“ Ms. Beatrice was the most delightful and engaging person I have ever met. Her daughter Toni, always let me call her "mommy" as well. She was always joyful and full of life. Her joy and laughter was contagious as it brightened your day. Powerful soldier for the Lord, and I know there are a lot of smiles and laughter, and hugs in heaven right now. You were a blessing, and I will miss you. Love Sybil and famil.

“ Ms. Beatrice and I met at church (Lynwood Park Church in Atlanta. We sat next to each other and we sang and clapped and praised the Lord together. She was also very kind to me and I used to love to hear her testify about the goodness of God. She introduced me to Minnie and we have been friends ever since. Rest in peace Ms. Beatrice and sing with the angels. Love Dianne and family.

“ Tiny, my love, I know from my heart that you and I were like loving sisters. There were many words we shared that I will never forget. There were so many fun memories that I have of us doing things together. We prayed together, enjoyed eating, laughing out loud, because we simply enjoyed each other's company!

Love and peace,

Your sister, Leela Thompson

“ Open Letter: Mom, you were a strong mother in values and spirit. You were that praying mommy and grandmother and for that I am grateful. I will always remember the something's you have taught me and pass them on to my daughter. Your spirit will always be with us as we journey through life. You are my HERO. May God Bless you and Rest in Peace. Love your daughter Minnie.
