Belinda Jackson-Laury was born November 25, 1958 at Hurley Hospital in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of Gene L. and Corene a.k.a "Billie Rae" Jackson. She was baptized and accepted Christ at a very early age. When she attended Sunday service she would worship at True Gospel MBC. Belinda attended graduated from Flint Northwestern High School. She then pursued certification as an STNA in the nursing field in Michigan, after which she received her Bank Teller License in California. Belinda was a California resident for about 5 years before returning to Flint, where she worked as an Elementary School Bus Driver, a County Worker distributing commodities to senior citizens and as an employee of Lear Seating. She loved to stay busy cooking, baking, fishing, reading or watching CNN for information on the state of the union. Rachael Maddow was one of her favorite hosts along with Bill Mahar. Dancing, music and dressing to the nines was another list of her bus-i-ness and what made life for her as full as it was. She was caring, giving, direct in her intentions, humorous and spontaneous...truly a special wife, sister, aunt and great-aunt.

Belinda Jackson-Laury leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Willie Laury Jr.; 4 step-children, Tanya Laury, Keith Laury, Dontric Dyar, all of Flint, and Kevin Laury of California; 3 sisters, Billie Jean Jackson, Sonya (Vernon) Jackson Burns, all of Smackover, AR, and Jenever Jackson Utsey of Burbank, CA; 4 sisters-in-law, Ella (Lee) McChristian, Georgia (Frankie) Funches, JoAnn Vaughn, all of Jackson, MS and Mandell (Eddie) Wilson of Miami, FL; 7 brothers-in-law, Charles (Ruth) Laury of Flint, Vaughn Laury, Melvin (Yvonne) Laury, Howard Laury, Wayne Laury and Kenny Laury, all of Jackson, MS.

Belinda had special friendships with a number of individuals but the two that were instrumental in her life were cousin, Cora Johnson and god-daughter, Jacquetta (Wookie) Jordan of Flint, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Belinda was preceded in death by her parents, Gene L. and Corene "Billie Rae" Jackson; brother, Derrick Jackson; father-in-law, Willie Sr. (Rose) Laury.
