Bennie Nolan Reynolds, Sr., departed this life on Monday, June 1, 2020. Bennie, was born on September 12, 1927 in Sunflower County, Mississippi to the late Lucille Cooper Reynolds and Robert Reynolds. Bennie gave his life to Christ at the age of 13. He graduated high school and attended trade school. Bennie married Margaret Fowler on April 20, 1948. He dedicated his life to her, and cared for her during her long illness. Their story is unique; his love and devotion was always and forever. Bennie never left Margaret's side, and was with her to the end. He showed his children how to really love and care for one another.

Bennie was always interested in entrepreneurship. At the age of 22, he began to learn how to manage a grocer's business in Greenville Mississippi. In 1954, he and Margaret moved their family of 3 to Flint, Michigan. Their fourth child was born right after the move. He was a member of Canaan Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Alfred Robbs, then to Christ Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church serving under the leaders, Pastors Alfred Robbs and Leroy Shelton, there he received a Citation for his service to the Senior Usher Board from Pastor Dr. Mark A. Jones Sr. where he continued to serve under the leadership of Pastor Allen C. Overton Sr. until his health failed. Bennie worked as a welder while saving money to start his own grocery business. In October, 1959, Bennie and Margaret, opened their business, the "Humpty Dumpty", a grocery store, located at 847 Cornelia St. Bennie operated the business until his retirement in April 1998. He sold the business in June 1998, and bought a home a few blocks away from the cemetery where Margaret was buried in March 1998. Bennie visited Margaret daily and made sure she had fresh flowers every day.

On Monday, June 1, 2020, at 10:30am, at Medilodge Nursing Facility, he was lifted up on the angel wings of prayer as his eldest son and daughter read scriptures and expressed their love. At 10:45am, Bennie joined the loves of his life-Margaret and Jesus.

Bennie leaves to cherish his memory: loving daughter, Dr. Dianne Reynolds, MD of Washington D.C., an extraordinary advocate as she attended to every detail of her father's needs during his failing health; treasured and devoted son and caregiver, Bennie Jr., of Chevy Chase, Maryland, who never left his side, prayed with him daily, even during Covid-19, and stood outside of his window to say prayers with him; loving and treasured son and daughter-in-law, Dr. Dwight Reynolds, MD. (Christine), of Parkland, Florida, who was steadfast in his advocacy of his father's needs during his illness, and with whom he spent the winter months, faithful and cherished daughter, Paula Reynolds, of Washington, D.C., who faithfully shared many uplifting messages with him.

Bennie leaves grandsons: Dwight Reynolds, Jr., of Ohio, who was greatly loved by his granddad; Dr. Brandon Reynolds, of New York City, affectionally referred to by Bennie as “My boy, only always a ride away”; Adrian and Justin Reynolds, of Parkland, Florida, lovingly regarded by Bennie for their companionship and cooking. He leaves great-nephew and best friend, Willie Stacks, of Flint who Bennie loved as a son. There was nothing Willie would not do for his uncle and was always there. He also leaves loving niece, Gloria Stacks, of Flint, who was greatly adored and cherished by him, beloved sister-in-law, Dorothy Jones of Flint, who often prepared and served many of his favorite foods; sister-in-law, Sarah Jackson of Flint, cousin Emma Jackson of Denver, Colorado, and many cherished cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Bennie Reynolds was preceded in death by his loving wife of 50 years, parents, 3 brothers, Emil, Grover, and John David, 3 sisters, Ophelia, Bessie, and Henrietta.

“ All I can say is that he was a wonderful man. It was a pleasure to meet him because I had heard so much about him from Ben Jr that I felt I already knew him. He was very welcoming and had a great sense of humor. I heard he called me “Friars Point,” my hometown in Mississippi. I am so sorry he is gone. My condolences to his family. My prayers for a resting peace for Mr. Bennie Reynolds Sr.
