“ *The Wrose Family,
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.
When you are sorrowful look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight.
Sincerely,

“ *Dear Wrose Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh even with the passage of time. I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)*

“ You have my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one Mr Benny Rose. In the Bible at Psalms 56:8 there is an account of King David praying to God. When suffering pain and a lot of stress he prayed to God to put his tears in a skin bottle. Such tears would always be remembered, yes, written down in God's book. Please remember that Almighty God knows your pain and will give you what you need, to be comforted and endurance through the days that lie ahead.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy. It is important to look to the bible for comfort. Revelation 21:4 says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning or outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
