“ Dinona, Timmy, & Terry

My prayers are with you. To be absent from the body is to present with the Lord. It may hurt now, but God knows best, and He shall wipe away the tears.

Just remember that your mother & grandmother is only a memory away. For she will always live in your hearts.

God Bless & keep you.

“ Aunt Bernice was always kind, gentle, and soft spoken. I have fond memories of her when I visited my Grandmother Wright in Mt. Morris. She was the only relative who never changed her unconditional love when it came to my mother, Gladys Bernice Wright Mitchell. Prayers and kind thoughts to Dinonna, Tim, and Terry. Bev

“ My heart is truly sadden to learn of the passing on this great woman. I was blessed to meet Mrs. B. (Wright) Humphrey when she became my first grade teacher at Dort School. I was again blessed to have her as my sixth grade teacher. Throughout the years, I would see Mrs. Humphrey's mostly at Meijers. It was always liked we talked everyday. She was very special to me. I thank God for putting her in my life. She always had an encouraging word. I will miss her smile. May god continue to bless your family.

“Mrs. Wright was our 3rd grade teacher and she was absolutely our favorite. She was always so nice and sweet to be around. I recently saw her last summer and she met our daughter who was a newborn at the time. We had a wonderful conversation, and she was just as sweet as I remembered her to be.

I am sorry for your loss and I know your family will greatly miss her. During this time, take comfort that the peace of God will be with you and help you during this time of bereavement.
