“ To the Merriwether Family..and to my Former and First husband Lance...

When we spoke about her coming home, I could hear the passion, devotion and unconditional love in your voice. I could hear the pain in your voice yesterday 3/11..I know that you were so looking forward to bringing her home and taking care of your mom until she recovered. But God had other plans..he makes no mistakes. The dedication is something that you rarely hear from children these days. I only hope if it happens to us that our 22 yr old daughter Brit'Tany (Bri) is willing to devote herself to us as you have to your mom..Love from a long way and Im so sorry for the loss to all of you! - DaNielle Merriwether

“ Sorry for the loss of your mother, Bertha. She truly loved her family. Isaiah 25:8 says "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces."
