Mrs. Bertha Simpson was born January 27, 1927 in Scooba, MS, the daughter of Frank Jordan and Margaret White. She confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Leland, MS. Mrs. Bertha Simpson was a resident of Flint, MI and resided in Michigan for 49 years after moving from Leland, MS. Bertha Simpson was affectionately known as "Add" and was a member of Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church for 48 years, she was also one of the oldest members of Morning Star. She was a homemaker and enjoyed socializing, talking about the Lord, fishing, shopping and cooking. She never met a stranger and she made all feel welcome with open doors. She could feed at least 20 people off one chicken and you know it's only 8 pieces, but all would be full. Lol! She took being a mother very seriously; she loved her kids and grandkids and would always provide for them even if she had to short herself. But most of all, “Add” would never forget to share the Word of God. “Add” was united in marriage to Henry Simpson on March 14, 1946 and had been married for 48 years. To this union 8 children were born.

Mrs. Bertha Simpson leaves to cherish her memory: 2 daughters, Vondella Flynn of Flint and Barbara (David) Scott of Mount Morris, MI; 3 sons, Walter (Norma) Jordan, Eugene Simpson, and Charles (LyNita) Simpson, all of Flint; 20 grandchildren; 50 great-grandchildren; 28 great-great grandchildren; 2 sisters, Georgia Veal and Hattie Hawkins of Flint, sisters at heart, Mamie Coleman and Ernestine Sims; a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends including special friends, Robert and Connie Black, Ruby Crawford, Barbara Jones, Sister Eloise Sims, Thelma Childress, god-daughters, Mary Jean Veely and Shirley Snowden, Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church family and god-son Kenneth (G-Rell) Loper.

Mrs. Simpson was preceded in death by her husband, Henry Simpson; 2 sons, Leroy and Freddie Simpson; granddaughter, Latesha Taylor; parents, Frank Jordan and Margaret White, sister, Frankie Johnson; and brother, Freddie Jordan.

The Family would like to express special thanks to Rev. Dr. Henry L. Fuller Jr. and Mt.
