“ Jer. 29:11

Our lives are but fine weaving that God and we prepare, each life becomes a fabric planned and fashioned in his care...We may not always see just how the weaving intertwine, but we must trust the Master's hand and follow his design, For he can view the patterns upon the upper side, While we must look from underneath and trust in Him to guide. Not till the loom is silent and the shuttles cease to fly shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why. The dark threads are as needed in the Weaver's skillful hand As the thread of gold and silver in the pattern He has planned. Sometimes a strand of sorrow is added to his plan, And though it's difficult for us, We still must understand. That he who flies the shuttle , It's He who knows what's best, So we must weave in patience and leave to Him the rest. To the family let not your heart be trouble. Our prayers are with you and you find the strength you need.

“ Dear Family and Friends: I am deeply sorry for your loss. It is very hard to lose a cherished loved one. May the hope at Isaiah 25:8, bring the "Webb" family much comfort, here our "Creator and Heavenly Father, Jehovah God" (Psalm 83:18), assures us that soon death will be "swallowed up forever and tears wiped from all faces." May this wonderful hope and your treasured memories keep you strong and soothe your broken hearts (Psalm 147:3).
