“ My memory of Mother Thomas, was that she was a soft spoken a prayer Warrior. A woman of God that was on the battle field for the Lord. Mother Thomas was faithful and committed to our Lord and her Church. I loves to hear her laugh. Before she joined the Choir, her and I would raise our voices to " My God My.God His Love is so Amazing,, His love is so Incredible " she wold never get enough of his Love!!! Praise God Mother Thomas, See His face in Peace!!! I Love you!!!!

“ Mother Betty was indeed my Prayer partner! Always willing to help in any way she could. Our daily talks kept me on my toes. Always willing to sacrifice her time with a uplifting word of encouragement. With a smile on her face and never afraid to tell me the truth on how to overcome a situation. With a Prayer on her lips, never entraining gossip. Showing you what true love is, inside and out. Always willing to listen from the heart!
