“ Ms. Betty will be missed by all who loved her. I’m really going to miss her. We worked together at all of Sis. Delores remotes. When our mother passed she too the Smith GIRLS under her wing and continued to pour into our lives positive things for us to use as a great support for us. When I was elevated to a District Missionary she was right there to pour into me positive encouragement for my ministry. I Loved her soo much. I’m going to really miss her. I’m praying for her entire family that God will strengthen them. 🙏🙏❤️

She was not a blast from my past (knowing her much of her adult life) but a constant reminder of the faithfulness of God, keeping us connected with a bond that grew stronger over the years. I join the multitude of people that was and will be impacted by her life. We are praying for you Nikki, Gil and the family.*

But, little did I know when I talked to her on April the 9th, that would be the last time I see her or have a conversation with her. She MC the fashion show for the Great Lakes Women's Auxiliary. She made the event a success, as in everything she did. This Woman of God will truly be missed, by myself and many others. RIH my friend and take your rest.*
