Mrs. Beverly "Cookie" Ann Williams was born August 23, 1950, in Newark, New Jersey, the daughter of Cleophis and Laura (Chapman) Rawls. Beverly attended school in the Flint Community and was a graduate of Flint Central High School. She was a woman of many talents often lending her expertise, knowledge, and creativity to her community.

Beverly was a seamstress, clothing and interior designer, a great storyteller, and mother to many...And was never one to mince her words. Simply put, she was unapologetically herself and lived life as such. There is really nothing she didn't succeed in doing if it was her desire to do so, and this came by faith. A member of Second Chance Ministries Deliverance Church, Beverly never hesitated to help others or spread the Word of God. Church was her second home, and she valued the principles and morals that it expressed. Her strong faith and relationship with God helped her to navigate life lovingly and undoubtedly. She knew God and God knew her. Beverly's favorite saying will continue to resonate in people's minds, "God loves you and so do I". She was a friend to all who knew her. In the words of her loving husband, "The best friend God could give me was Cookie. There will never be another Cookie".

Mrs. Beverly Ann Williams leaves to cherish her memory: Her beloved husband of 37 years, Joseph L. Williams; 2 sons, Gregory Rawls of Grand Rapids, MI and Samuel Rawls of College Park, GA; 9 grandchildren, Kirkshun Rawls of Atlanta, GA, Austin Love and Alysia Rawls of Las Vegas, NV, Aj'ia Rawls of Harrisonville, MO, Jaxxon Doyle of Bainbridge, GA, Olivia Mulligan of Kalamazoo, MI, Ariel and Areanna Macintosh-Rawls, and Vizshun Rawls of Grand Rapids, MI. 8 great-grandchildren, Marcus, Miles, and Maxwell of Las Vegas, NV, Avionna and Alanis of Harrisonville, MO, Jakori, Zaine of Dallas, TX, and Kaiora of Asheville, NC; 2 Brothers, John (Johnnie) Rawls and James Rawls of Flint, MI; 2 nephews, Jeramie of Dallas, Texas and Jeffrey Rawls of Las Vegas, NV; 1 sister-in-law, Sheila Carter of Southfield, MI; 1 brother in-law, Anthony Williams of Flint MI; a host of other relatives and friends including special true friend, Bernitta "Sue" Jackson, cousin, Anita Aikins, and Godmother Edna Mastin.

Mrs. Williams was preceded in death by her parents, Cleophis and Laura Rawls; several aunts and uncles, including special aunt, Ola Cummings and dear friend, Viola Kindall.

The family would like to express special thanks to Hurley Hospital, Pastor Lamarr Griggs and Second Chance Ministries Deliverance Church, and Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home.

“ I was deeply saddened to learn of Cookie's passing. She had a vibrant, high-energy spirit and a laughter that stayed with you. She treated everyone with equal kindness and sincerity, and whenever you left her home, you felt lighter and happier. She had a genuinely kind heart and came from good roots. You couldn't help but love her spirit, and even though our paths had not crossed in recent years, her presence and the way she made people feel will always be remembered. She will truly be missed.
