“ billie we miss you already. Your smile and chuckled laugh will be missed. We will take care and watch over monica, the children, and grand children for you. God knew you would not be able to withstand dad's death so he took you first. He makes no mistakes. You and dad are in God's loving arms resting. No more pain, no more suffering. RIP big brother. We and all your family miss you from the bottom of our hearts. Just wanted to let you know that.

“ This is so hard to do or see. He's not suppose to be here. Not today. He had so much life in him, and loved his family so much. It hurts that his grandchildren that he adored and cherished so much will never remember him. It's still hard for everybody, But GOD does not give use more that we can bear. And I have to stand on his word.
