“ I sincerely offer my condolence for Billy Bryant, Jr. Times like this cause us sadness. Our love one's death brings us face-to-face with the fact that they are gone too soon. So when a love one has past, no matter who we are it is painful. God not only knows but he cares! Said Jesus: "Do not two sparrows sell for a coin of small value? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's knowledge. . . . You are worth more than many sparrows."-Matthew 10:29, 31. He knows your sorrow and pain. Since emotions tests our very fiber be strong and know that others share your grief. "Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May you find comfort and relief during this sad period. Yet, celebrate the unforgettable memories you shared with Billy. I did not personally know Billy Bryant, Jr. I read his obituary. May you find strength and peace.

*Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow,
May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.

“ Rhonda

You know I love you like a Sister. I never met BJ but I know you. You are one of the smartest people I know and in your heart I believe that you know that "This too will pass. I can not say I know how you feel because I do not just know that you and everyone in your family are in my prayers. BJ can spread his wings and walk around heaven all day. Remember "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."

“ To B.J. Family, I was really shocked and sad to hear about B.J., He was a real good friend to my son, Meech. He grew up at our home. He was a real nice young man. I'm going to really miss him joking around with me. Praying for his two daughters, I know they don't understand right now. My prayers go out to The Bryant Family! God is in Control, let Him fight this battle. I'm going to miss B.J.

“ I will always remember your beautiful smile and the twinkle in your eyes and your magnetic personality. We had some wonderful times when your mother brought you and your sister, Brandy and Sammie out to California to visit with me Eric and Travis. I am grateful to have numerous pictures of you that depicts your winning smile and that twinkle in your eyes. I am so happy that I was able to see you and get that tight hug from you when I was home visiting this past August. It was a pleasure and a blessing to meet your daughters and their mother for the first time. I know we make a date for you and your beautiful family to come visit me next year in the summer, and we were going to take the girls to Disneyland; well things did not work out like we planned but your mother and I will make sure that your beautiful daughters get that trip to Disneyland in the near future. In the meantime Mr. B.J. rest in peace and we will see you in the future where I look forward to seeing your beautiful smile, that twinkle in your eyes once again.

“ Hello,

My condolences go out to your family at this time. I wanted to leave you with an encouraging thought. God promises us that there will come a time when we will see our loved ones that have passed away again. Death is something that we will never be able to get used to because it is not God's purpose for mankind. Here at John 5:28 it mentions that there will come a time when "all in the memorial tombs will here his voice and come out". That includes Billy. The bible at times even refers to death as "sleep".It was similar when Lazarus died. Jesus told his disciples that he was going to visit Lazarus "to awaken him from sleep." The disciples did not understand what Jesus meant, so "Jesus said to them outspokenly: 'Lazarus has died.'" The apostle Paul too spoke of ones 'who had fallen asleep in death' and said that in God's due time, they would be brought back to life.-John 11:11-14; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-15. I only wanted to leave you with this thought of hope. If you would like to talk more about it contact me at pamelatraeye@hotmail.com
