“ My mother slips sometimes and calls me Billy, but I know she remembers when I was her young son. And even at 71, I don't mind. I guess at 95 she's earned the right to keep calling me whatever she wants. But the main thing is, that she's still around to call me by any name she wants. But if she should die before I might, I feel happy that I will see her again. And you guys will see Billy again as John 11:25, 26!

“ Billy had a big heart and a love of people. He was always helping someone, my family included. Billy also loved God, and believed Him over what man would say. Man would tell him what he couldn't do anymore, but Billy said that he would do his part (put in the work) and God would do His. Man said he wouldn't walk, Billy sure proved them wrong. Billy worked hard while he was here, he can rest now that he is with the Lord. But I am sure God will find him something to do there, because we all know that Billy can't stay still for long. My love to the family, He is absent from us, but his spirit will never die.
