“ I am so sorry that Billy is gone, I knew him through my daughter. My only hope is that people who truly want to leave their condolences do so. I have noticed on 4-people that I personally knew that have passed away in recent months, Mrs. Joyce Simpson continues to attempt to recruit students for Jehovah's Witnesses. I am so offended and please do not attempt to "recruit" on Mr. Johnson's site. This is a time of bereavement and it is completely in appropriate to do this to family members at a time like this. Do you not have any decency and/or self respect and most of all empathy for the family of the deceased loved one. I am sure you will be reading and as a long time friend of the family, I am requesting that you please, please, please leave this family alone. You even placed your insincere message on a Mr. Bobby Rouse's site and if you had of read his obituary, you would have seen that he was already a Jehovah's Witness. Mr. Billy Johnson has gone on and whatever happens to him in the afterlife is between him and his God. I hope that anyone else that reads this message bands with me to stop Mrs. Joyce Simpson from continuing her tirades!

Our family will continue to hold the Johnson Family in our hearts, minds and most of all in our prayers!!!
