He grew up in Shreveport, Louisiana, a proud product of "Stoney Hill." Odis moved to Flint as a teenager to be reared by his beloved grandparents, Rev. L.W. and Ella Owens. Pastor Floyd attended Flint Northern High School before entering the military, attaining his diploma while serving in the U.S. Army and earning an Honorable Discharge. In October 1993, he was consecrated as 2nd Presiding Bishop of the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship. Bishop Floyd oversaw several construction projects, including this worship complex in 1994, making him the pastor of the largest church in Genesee County. “ To my Dear Bishop Floyd, who I came to Love and know who through the word of God also, being a member of NJFGBChurch. Bishop taught me (us) how to study the Bible and most to be correct when preaching it. Bishop did not judge when I came to talk to about being Called to Ministry but prayed about it and later invited me to the minister meeting. Bishop has this thing he said YOU BETTER WATCH OUT FOR THOSE TRIPLETS that I will interpret as when they preach it will be correct. Bishop I Love you and will never forget your teaching of the word of GOD to The FLOYD FAMILY I send my sincere condolences .

“ Many people around the world mourn the passing of Bishop Odis A. Floyd. I live in Cleveland but my family in flint have been members of New Jerusalem Full Gospel Baptist Church for over 30 years and Bishop officiated at the funeral of those that we have passed on starting with my Brother Samuel D. Primm, my mother "Mother Lorine Turner" who was former president of the Mother's Board, and my great nephew Brandon Blake Hawkins. I'm sure that they and countless others were there to greet Bishop when he made his transition to God. My sister, "Mother Margaret Montgomery" and other family members still attend New Jerusalem. Bishop will be missed but impossible to forget and we must remember that God only loans us his shepherds but he calls them home for their ultimate reward for their services, rewards that Bishop has definitely earned. Thank you Bishop for the spiritual guidance and love that you provided to my family over the years.

“ God be praised for blessing the city of Flint with Bishop Floyd. I visited many years ago as a child with my mother. Grew accustomed to listening to then Rev Floyd on the radio, WDZZ. Worked with son Tony and was blessed to be working with other Christians at the Urban League, many years ago. As I got older I yet listened to Bishop Floyd on WFLT and always loved to hear his sermons. I also enjoyed hearing Bishop sing. While in Indiana I searched for some of the songs your church used to sing. I don't know if they were New Jerusalem's or not. But I do know that your church always has had a dynamic choir! The song I kept looking for was "Clean This House On The Inside" and the other song "Oh, Do You Know Him?", these songs are bookmarked in my memory. Your church and sermons will always be cherished in the city of Flint as well as abroad. Thank God for Bishop and his walk with Christ Jesus. I am praying for the family and members. Stay encouraged and led by the Lord Jesus. Celebrate his homegoing in love, peace & joy.

“ Bishop Floyd has touched many lives through serving God and the community I am just one. I heard him speak at the old New Jerusalem when I was a child I am 51 now. His message was about burying the Hatchet and leaving the handle sticking up. The message was about forgiveness and when you forgive someone don't bring it up again. After all these years. I remember that message. I also caught some of his teachings at 12 noon. He usually taught on something that was significant to me. There are people whose light shine so brightly that when they go home the world seemingly grows dimmer. Thank-you Heavenly Father for the outpouring of your love through Bishop Floyd and I ask that you comfort and bless all his family in every way in Jesus name, Amen

“ Pastor Floyd was the first to baptize me into the family of God and although I was a little girl, he always had time for me if I stuck my head into his office to ask a question.
