To the Smoot family, though I wasn't able to pay my respect at his home going, nor sign his guestbook. Thank you for the photo book of pictures from by in the day, to the present. These pictures tell the story. A smiling face, meant a cheerful heart. I smiled at some pictures, but some had me cracking up at Bob. Wonderfully put together these pictures. May heaven smile on each of you. May your healing from your lost be speedily. Keep smiling!

“ My deepest sympathy to Bob Smoot Family. When I think of Bob I can vividly see his beautiful smile. This past summer we crossed paths. He looked so well and said he was doing well. I asked him why he didn't attend our class reunions. He shrugged his shoulders and said, "well Deb, you know how it is", and yes I understood. We enjoyed those days in high school. The pep rallies, drivers training and study hall. Bob would come to class and say something crazy or stupid to the entire class. He was somewhat a jokester and as someone else stated, he was well received by his peers. May your memories of Bob brighten your days and years ahead. May the Peace of God be with you and Comfort you all.

“ To the Smoot family. I being a northern Viking classmate of Bob, and I am saddened to hear of his passing. We were a class of graduates with a style none could compare. We cared for one another, and stood when adversaties came! We stood strong, love held us together. When something happened to a Viking, Bob knew it, and then we all knew it! (Smiling) He was a very nice person. Was well received at our school. He brought laughter to us all like a champion! Goodbye for now Northern Viking, red & grey. I say "Bob Smoot" you kept us laughing, that's what this world needs. Laughter instead of crying! You've made an impact on many lives with smiles. I won't cry, I'll smile, my heart is heavy, but I'll smile, you would want it that way! May God greet you with a "SMILE!" The Angels laughing as you walk in... "GO VIKING!"
