“ Hello

I would like to extend my sympathies to the family of Mrs. Bobbie M Gentry.

I have lost loved ones in Death and a I know how it feels. I try to keep in mind the prophet Johns words at Rev 21:4.

In his vision Apostle John stated that he had seen Death, Mourning, Outcry and Pain done away with. He spoke of them as the former things.

This scripture gives me hope that one day no love ones will die in Gods new Kingdom.

I hope you find comfort in this scripture also.

Again, Please accept my condolences.

“ To Esther and the entire Gentry family I extend my sympathy in the loss of your dear mother. Mrs. Gentry was a wonderful and caring person. I always felt welcome on my visits to her home. Trust in the Lord for solace during this time of bereavement, for he will never fail you all. Please know that even though I cannot be there with you all, I will hold you all up in prayer. Always remember the good times that you shared with your mother and that she will always be with you in spirit. May God continue to bless you all.

“ Oh how blessed you are to know that your mother is in a better place for real. May her love for God and his people be a memorial to all. David in Psalms said/asked that when his soul was overwhelmed that he would be led to the Rock. It's good to know that Christ is easily touched with our infirmities.

Keep looking to Christ, the author and finisher of our faith. If you keep your mind on Jesus, he'll keep you in perfect peace.
