He Resting now in comfort of the Father, may your days be bright knowing he no longer has to suffer any more. And just knowing Tawanna you done your best to comfort him and by the grace of God Kenya was about to spend some quality time with him also. He's absent from his body but will always be remembered, and his twin is there in the fullness of his father, Kent will always be close bye I'm sure. May you rest and be at peace here now. It's your time enjoy and always know that the father is just a prayer away. Much Love for the 3 of you.
