*Sill in my heart, the tears start when I think of when the Lord called Bonita Suzzette Walker, but what gets me through is God's Holy Word. Its not about titles for when our name is called it won't be Dr. Lawyer or Indian Chief it will be our name. I thank God for Bonita being apart of my Life. Resting in the might Arms of Jesus Christ. Forever Missed...

“ Ms. Bonita always was so kind to me and patient every time she come to see me, always having a kind smile when she came into the shop. She was truly just a kind and sweet soul, she would always be thinking of others she often time wouldn't let me leave on my own, often times her and her mom would be my last clients of the day and would always make sure I had someone to walk out with and felt safe. I appreciated it so much and that alone showed me her compassion and empathy for others. I had the opportunity to be her hair stylist for the last year and she was always a pleasure to have in my chair. The beautiful Ms.Bonita will truly be missed. Sending so much love to her family and prayers

“ I will forever remember our last phone conversation, and the "same to you Deen" response on 17 February on my phone, after I sent the Valentine Day message. Will forever miss the late night & early morning calls, getting up at same time saying "couldn't sleep so i called you!"

Heading to Flint now & crying but God wipes away all tears, these are tears of happiness that God allowed you as part of our lives, tears that I won't see you upon arrival, yet tears of joy for our souls, praying we will meet again! Lord say the same...

My childhood friend while we were grade-schoolers at Pierce Elementary. She invited me to her 10th birthday party for a sleepover, and it was my first time having grits with bacon. Her family was gracious and generous. Bonita, you have a special place in my heart for these childhood memories. I remember you fondly ~~~Aimee Suzanne Long

“ I only talked with her by phone. I never met her personally. I was calling to find out had she heard from her sister Jackie because she was in Ghana and I wanted to know she was there and doing well. Her kind voice along with laughter which I could visualize her smile letting me know all was well.
May all she loved and cared for past that love on.
