“ Monique and Sonya, although it is a hard walk right now, remember that what you may consider your worse is never your worse and worse can always be worse than what we imagine. Focus on how your mom lived her life and served her purpose within the time frame which we all have and within which God allotted. She is definitely smiling right now, healthy right now, in the arms of our God right now, and amidst her loving family members who paved the way ahead of her. She will always be with you. God's perfect plan - so awesome we can't even try to imagine - guarantees that. We love you, have always loved you, always will love you, and will remain here for you whenever you need us. God bless you girls. YOUR RANKIN FAMILY, PITTSBURGH.
