“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Please be assured , death will soon be “swallowed up forever” and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. May you find comfort from God’s words in the Bible.

My heart goes out to all of Brian's family. You all are in my thoughts and prayers and have my deepest sympathy. Unfortunately, I only got to meet my husband's Uncle Brian once but I have heard about him many times from Joey and Helen. R.I.P.

“ I didn't know Brian very well but from wat i did know i could see he was a very kind and gentle soul whom loved his family very much. One thing i do know for sure is that he raised five wonderful children n took care of them and loved them like no other. He was always very nice and polite to me when i would stop by the house with his daughter, my best friend Emily! The world lost a wonderful person. Watch over us and b our Angel until we meet again. u will b in our hearts an our thoughts forever. Rest well!!!!

“ Well I used to live next-door to him, and there wasn't a day go by that he didn't come out and say hello to the kids and play around with them... He was always making sure there bikes were good to go and watever else.. A sweet kind hearted man.. he always forgot who I was when I would see him until I said I lived next door to you the one with crazy kids,lol... You will b forever missed! Rip Brian Blair Sr.

“ Brian Blair is my father,he is the strongest,funniest most generous man i will ever know.Not a day will go by that i dont think of him..he was always my first phone call of the day and oohh man would i hear about it if i didnt call him.I always loved how he always would have a joke or something smart to say he never liked any to be mad or sad he would always say something to make you laugh or smile.Us kids know exactly where we get most of our personality from and im glad thats something that we can carry on.I love you Dad and you will forever hold a place in my heart. R.I.P <3

“ I will miss you at family gatherings. I couldn't not have asked for a nicer father in law for my daughter (misty) and you were the best grandpa. You gave those boys a lot of precious memories. May you rest in peace now, with your son (Brian) the THE SON, Jesus
