“ My condolences goes out to the Knight family for the loss of Brian. I grew up on the other end of the block and Brian would come down and talk with the biggest smile and ask many questions (smile). He had a great spirit as a kid. Even running into him years later as adults, he still was authentic, speaking about his family and I appreciated that. I wish your family the best.

Sincerely, Nikki

I appreciate the friendship we had that lasted literally a lifetime. I will miss you, as well as your phone calls. I still have our memories, playing board games in your living room, watching Knight Rider and playing curve ball in the summer. You will live on in my heart. Rest in sweet peace.
