“ My heart goes out to my friend, Lynda Pitts (the Pitts and White Family). I know that there is nothing that is too hard for our God to handle. I trust that He will give you strength in the sudden loss of Brian. It is challenging to see it now, but time will help with the pain. Reflect on the precious memories and what he meant to you. Our Lord truly knows what you are going through and will be there for you. - Joyce McCain

“ Brian was a good soul from childhood through adulthood, he was always there for the Bradford family.

When I dropped my crayon box in rainbow stripes on the floor one person stopped to help me gather rolling crayons (sixty-four).
Crawling on our hands and knees we picked up bits of green and blue When someone else spills all their crayons
I will stop to help them too.
