“ Mom today is March 5, 2020 a day before and five years from the day called you home! I just want you to know that not a day go by that you are not missed. Never thought I would not have you here with us. You have additional grandchildren now, more than just Heiress aka phat-phat. You will be happy to know that Heiress is the only girl. Life has not been easy but you will be happy to know that your children are doing okay! You would be so happy to know I got into nursing school. It is hard, but I pray and I stay focused. Sometimes I talk to you and I can feel your presence, I know your looking down at all of us and watching over us. Love and miss you mama!

“ To the Williams family, you are in my prayers. I remember Bridgette as one of the prettiest little girls in our neighborhood, hair always combed, clothes always in place.

Kudos to Mr. and Mrs. Williams for raising beautiful girls with pretty smiles! Bridgette will be missed, she's family, it's hard to say goodbye to neighborhood family members who have transition far too soon to Heaven. However, to be absent from this body, is to but present with Jesus. Bridgette knew God and that's his promise to believers.

May God Bless all of you and give you supernatural peace, especially Bridgette's Children!

Tracy, this too will pass with time, I know it's hard. Put it in Gods hands.

“ Bridgette,

We had some good days singing in the Flint Central A Cappella Choir and attending Central. You always had the prettiest and most brightest smile. Class of 1989!!!

May God have favor upon you and your loved ones as they adjust to your transition. May you rest well with your Master in His Kingdom. You were faithful, strong, and courageous; no more pain or worry, but sweet rest in His arms and paradise.

To Sis. Marlene and the William's family, God bless you guys. May you have perfect peace during this hour. Take comfort in knowing she is at rest and with her Master. For to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. As we all will one day, she has left some work unfinished. We are now charged with the task of finishing her run and walking the rest of her road out. May the courage and wisdom to complete it be found in all of our hearts.

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Philippians 4:8

*Love,
