“ To Robin, Brandy, Brianna

I know words can't describe the feelings that you all have now. Just know that we are here for if you need us. Realizing that only God alone will be able to give you the peace that you need we will be praying that He comforts you in a mighty way not only today but the days to come. We will remember Brownie for her love of singing, dancing, and being the leader of the group rather we wanted to hear it or not!

When the people have gone and the days seem quiet remember to look the God; He will dry your tears and help you hold on the memories. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

We love you.

“ To: Robin, our prayers are with you and the family!!! Remember, when you watch someone walking down the road, our eyes follow that person a long time. But where the road curves behind a hill, we loose sight of that person. It simply means that person is in another place. A place beyond our ability to see. Heaven is like a curve in the road!!

Love you, Brenda and Sammie
