“ It seems like yesterday when we was just kids kicking it together people thought we was twins, I can't believe you are not with me anymore my little brother how I will miss your crazy ass. But you are no longer in pain and that is the only thing that is getting me through this heart ache. I love you bro and will always miss you. I do wish I could be selfish and still have you here. But God called you home I will see you soon bro until then you will remain in my heart ❤️
