“ I'm sorry for your loss losing a loved one can be so tragic. So I would like to offer you encouraging thoughts at Revelation 21:4-he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.

Lisa Wright - May 29, 2014 at 07:01 PM

“ To Mr. & Mrs. Kellum,

I am sorry to hear about the passing away of Byron. Being a parent myself, I cannot imagine what you must be going through. However, our Father God, knows your pain. He promises us that he will take care of this enemy death (Read 1 Corinthians 15:26). He also promises us that we will see our loved ones again (Read John 5:28,29).

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family of such a funny and cool man. I am glad I was given the opportunity to have met Byron, in the short time that I knew him, he kept me laughing or he was keeping things real. Your life on earth may have been short but your reward is heavenly, to the family look to the hills from whence cometh your help, let God be your comfort. Matthew 11:28-30 says Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” Byron you will be missed and in our hearts!

I just had to hug him one more time . Bizzy my baby you will always have a place in my heart “ Words cannot express the sorrow that I feel for you. No parent should ever have to lose a child. Our loving Creator knows how hard this is on you. We are told at In the book of Ezekiel “for I do not take any delight in the death of someone dying, is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord .” As you can see, He does not like death anymore than we do. It is not his will for us to die which is why He has given us the hope of everlasting life! (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Rev. 21:3, 4). As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2Cor 1:3).
