“ Uncle Carl, I will remember you as a proud, confident man who dared to dream. You started your own cab company (City Cab) and then you and Dad bought and operated a Sunoco Gas Station on McClellan & Saginaw back in the 60s.

When Mama was critically ill in the hospital, it was you who picked me up from Detroit Metro and took me to her bedside to be with my Dad and siblings.

You were the last of a generation of loved ones; and though our hearts are heavy, we will carry on, knowing that “joy cometh in the morning”.

Rest in Paradise Uncle Carl.
