“ My condolences to the family of Carlotta Kay Armstrong. I haven't seen Carlotta since she was a little girl. She was such a pretty little girl . My sister Gwen and I was friends with her two sisters Dewanna and Bridgette. Bridgette was my best friend at Manley Elementary School. My family was living at the Atherton Terrace Condo at the time in 1973 to 1974. Those times are some precious memories.

May the soul of Carlotta Kay Armstrong is born again of water and spirit and will enter the kingdom of God in Lord Jesus name. John 3: 3-5 Holy Bible John 11: 25-26

Sincerely,

“ I'm setting here at my desk; just trying to come up with words to say. And every time I think of something, I started to cry. The memories we share growing up together on Davidberger. Carlotta were one of the nurses, that help take of care my Grandson and she made sure everything was good with my daughter until I made it to Flint a few years ago. When my Mother pass away she took food over my dad house and made sure he were okay as well. We share so....many memories!! (THE BEST COSMETOLGY)Wow.

I will be praying to the Most High God; to give everyone strength and understanding during your time of bereavement.
