“ To the Cobbin-Jackson family, my memories of Carmen are humorous and direct. She would always tell you the truth regardless of what you wanted to hear. She is a real as they come. Her big heart will never be forgotten. Family please take comfort in know that saints don't die; they simply fall asleep, until that great getting up day.

Live with the memories of Carmen, to see her again.

Blessings,

Mel from the class of 1985.
