“ We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

R. and K. Muex - January 08, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ To the family. Seek comfort in the Lord. Carol was a dear, sweet, caring person. Over the past 35+ years, she always had a beautiful smile and kind words. Rest in God's peace.

Love, Sue

“ You are in my thoughts
as you find your way through this.
I am praying for your healing,
with the passage of time.
I know you miss her;
I send my understanding
and consolation.
Know that the strain, the pain,
will eventually ease.
May your pleasant memories
sustain and comfort you.
You are in my thoughts.

“ Carol - I know I usually have a lot of words, but right now I have very few. We are all so shocked you are gone, and there are no words to tell you how much you have been and will be missed. It won't be the same without you, but we will share our memories and stories of you fondly, and your (dare I say) legend will live on here forever. May God bless and keep you.

“ I am deeply saddened by the sudden death of Carol. I'm happy to have known Carol even though it was for a very short period of time. Carol was such a kind, warm and funny person who always had a smile on her face. My prayers and thoughts are with her and with those she left behind.

“ I was so terribly saddened to hear of Carol's passing. I know she struggled a long time with her health. I know she is now at peace with God! Carol and I started the same day at Mott and she was always so bright and cheery. She will be terribly missed! Rest in peace Carol and my heart goes out to her friends and family.

“ Dear Buford family, We were so sorry to hear of the passing of Carol. Please know that you all are in our thoughts and you can look forward to seeing her in the future according to John 5:28,29 which says, "All those in the memorial tombs will hear my [Jesus] voice and come out". This is called a resurrection and a true-life resurrection is recorded in the bible for us in the book of John, chapter 11:11-13,43,44. Read it and feel assured that this will happen to Carol.

“ Although my association with Carol was purely on a business basis, she was always very accommodating and easy to work with. I was saddened to hear of her passing. My prayers go out to the family during this difficult time.

“ Throughout your life if you are lucky you are blessed by a very special person. Carol Buford was a VERY special person. She was always smiling, always ready to take on any challenge that life threw at her. She didn't wait; she went out looking for it, and she faced it all head on. She enjoyed and embraced life. Her heart was so full of kindness, so much so that when you were with her it set you to that mood too. We were blessed to have known her, to have worked with her and to call her friend. She is blessed as God has opened His arms, and has welcomed her home. You have reached your reward my friend. I will most definitely miss you.

“ I was saddened to hear that Carol passed. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time. Carol always had a smile on her face and she will truly be missed at Mott Community College. May the family find comfort in knowing that she is no longer suffering and is in Heaven. God bless all of you.
