To Pebbles, Doug (& family) the transition of your Mom was truly a saddened shock. I worked with her @ the Postal Service and I joyfully remember the many laughs we shared & the interesting conversations we would have pertaining to our jobs, our children & her inspirations of always improving on education. I knew the two of you before I ever met you! I'm am thankful to have known your Mom & the goodness she offered in many ways. I admired her tenacity and will always remember that special smile of hers. I am continuing to pray for your strength & that your Faith in God forever remains as she so gracefully lived it! In love...Helen Womack

“ My Aunt Ann was a beautiful and loving person. While we were not able to see her often, whenever she saw us at our grandmother's home, she would always give my sister and I big hugs and ask about school. It seems like a little thing, but when I saw her last year at my Grandmother's funeral, I remembered those hugs and how she always stressed the importance of getting our education. You will be missed Aunt Ann.
