“ To Karen and Tamika,

I can't express how sad I was when I saw that your mom had past. I had just seen her about 6 weeks ago at the MAC make-up counter and told her I was getting married and invited her to attend. Tamika I got to meet your daughter because she was with your mom. It hit me pretty hard because it seems as if I just saw her yesterday. You have my prayers and thoughts. I know it's earsier said than done, but always keep God first and he will see you through.

God Bless

“ *Dearest Mother:
Never in my wildest dreams would I have thought that I wouldn't have you with me longer. I cherish the special moments that we had. I hear your voice often and I see your precious smile in my dreams. I remember the touch of your sweet, sweet hands and the smell of your perfume. Oh how I wish I would have stayed longer that day but God knew what I didn't know. He knew that he wanted to have a "special" talk with you and he knew that he had to have you all alone. I know that it was His plan and his alone because if you could have stayed longer you would have. I love you yesterday, today and forever. - Karen*

“ To My Dearest Sweet Angel,

My heart longs for you each day,as my hands which they could only touch your hands. On that day when you went away I knew because I could feel it in my soul. People often aid we were so much alike but what they didn't know was that I could feel your pain, and on that very day as the Lord began to pick his beautiful rose apart of my soul went with him too. Oh mommie how I miss you. Ther isn't a day that goes by that I don't feel your hand strok my hair or that I don't see you wonderful smile. Yes I'm sad but I know that you are with the King in his mansion and that you are fine. So don't forget our special place were we still meet my angel in my heart you'll forever be.

*Love your baby girl
Tamika*
