“ *To the Hamlett Family;
Your mother was special. She'll be missed.
Mama Hamlett was my girl...She would pull up on me anywhere she seen me to simply talk. Other times stop by my home and Blow her Horn, I'd run out and she'd say "girl" what have you been doing? My reply was always nothing.She'd talk until her next run somewhere.
Keeping it moving. Heaven received a "Boss Lady" Mrs. Carrie.

“ *My sincere apologies to Mrs. Hamlett's loved ones for misspelling her last name in my initial tribute. I've always known how to spell pretty good, thanks to Mrs. Hamlett. My first encounter with her was at Dort School. Mrs.
Hamlett always encouraged us to be good & do good. She will be sorely missed. Deborah Milling!*

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of “Sis” (Carrie Ann Hamlett) passing. She was affectionately known as “Sister” in our family. We upheld “Sis” as a beacon of light amongst us. There was never an occasion that she was not invited to share in the moment of making memories. She will be missed. To the Family, I extend my deepest condolences during this time of bereavement. May God give you comfort in your hours of need. I’m praying with you and for you in the days ahead. God Bless. RIH “Sis” Carrie Ann Hamlett
