Carrie Bell (Gilbert) Knapp, affectionately known as (Susie), was born December 22, 1950 in Magnolia, Arkansas to the union of Steve Anthony Sr. and Clara (Paschal) Gilbert. In 1952, at the age of 2, Susie came to Michigan with her parents. She attended Flint Central High School and later obtained her GED in 1994. Susie began to study the bible and was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on February 22, 1969. Susie and was an active servant, but when her health began to decline and she could not physically attend the meetings regularly; she always called to listen in.

In 1974, Susie met James Homer Knapp and they were married on February 28, 1977. Together, Susie and Homer blended their families and added 3 additional children. Susie was a gifted songstress and loved to read the Bible and sing Jehovah's Praises. Susie was a stay at home mom. Cooking and spending time with her family was a priority. Wherever you saw Susie, Homer was not far behind. Anyone that knew Susie would say that her smile would light up a room and her hugs would make anyone feel comforted and safe. “ Hello, i would like to share this poem that i've written. For a very special friend of mine and to his family. so sorry for your lost; may GOD bless you all.

Don't Grieve for me, for now I'm Free.

I'm following the path GOD layed for me. If in my parting, I've left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things i to will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you sunshine for tomorrow. My life's been full, I've savored much good friends, good times, a loved one touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and shared with me, god wanted me now. He set me free, i am home in heaven, dear ones, oh so happy and so bright!

There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light . all the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed; i am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last.

Oh, if you can see now. I'm free!

“ To the Knapp Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious gift of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith,

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
