“ To the family, friends and love ones:

My prayers are with you at this time during the loss of your love one. I knew Cassandra as a wonderful friend, co-worker and a loving mother to her children.

I?m very grateful that I had the pleasure of knowing and working with her.

The Bible tells us that weeping will endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. God knows just how much you can bear, and he will give you strength to get through these trying times. Family, when it seems as if you are so over come with grief that you cannot make it, call on the name of Jesus. He is your rock and fortress in your time of need. May the Lord give you peace & comfort- Amen

“ I was so shocked and saddened to hear about Cassandra. When Angie called, and I heard the sound of her voice....I knew something was terribly wrong.

I have so many emotions.....it is hard to really sufficiently express them. You never really stop and realize how much people impact your life, and how key relationships you've built through your lifetime have molded you into the person you've become.

I have soooo many fond memories of Cassandra and our years of growing into young women. Whether it was singing together, cheering, or just hanging out at our parents' houses, we loved and enjoyed each other. For years, the Brooks and Talbert families were my extended family.

Cassandra will be sorely missed.....and I pray that the family will find some comfort in knowing that she is resting peacefully.

*God Bless
Yakeitha
"Keeping you all in my prayers"*

“ Dear Family,

Although I have only met a few of you on one occasion, I was thankful for the love and hospitality I received from the Talbert family during this visit. At this time, I would like to give my expressions and feelings and of love back to you.

When I first met Edward "Ed" Talbert at Eastern Michigan University, he always spoke so proudly about how his sister Cassandra had graduated from Eastern Michigan University and accomplished so much during her time on campus individually and also through Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. Eventually, Ed and I became really good friends and eventually joined Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. together on April 7, 2001.

Although I never met Cassandra, her influence and guidance was evident through the wisdom she undoubtedly imparted in her younger brother Edward. Please accept my humble words and know that I am sincerely sorry to hear about this great loss to your family.

"Humility - Definition, root word humble marked by meekness or modesty in behavior, attitude, or spirit."

“ It is with a deep sadness on the transition of our Soror Cassandra Talbert. She set a strong example for others to follow and have given herself in service to the community and we feel her loss deeply. We pray for her family, friends, and co-workers in this time, that God will cover the broken hearts and provide solace to all that knew her. Cassandra will be remembered for her love of life, her love of her family and her work to serve others. We love her and her family and will continue her legacy of service and love for others.

“ Cassandra, May JEHOVAH keep you safely in his loving arms. To the family and friends, there are no words to express my deepest sympathies. My sister's and I were deeply saddened by the news of Cassandra's homegoing. Even in the darkest hour, give GOD the glory! God bless you and your family as well as all those who were blessed to have been graced with your presence! We will never forget you! Though it's been a very long time since I've seen you, I know you still were a very happy and kind woman who was very easy to get along with, you were loved! GOD BLESS!

“ I'll always remember

I'll always remember playing dress up in the basement and up-all-night sleep overs.

I'll always remember high school cheerleading and singing in the choir together.

I'll always remember college days filled with long study sessions and crossing burning sands.

I'll always remember the day our sons were born and how our lives changed.

I'll always remember my childhood playmate. My high school buddy. My college roommate. My sister. My Best Friend.

Cassandra I will miss you but I will never forget all that you have given and all that you were to me.

*Your Cousin
Angie*

“ I was saddened when i heard of Cassandra's passing. Although i did not know her well, she is one of the people that i became familiar with while attending Eastern. She was always pleasant when our paths cross and had this just infectious loving smile. My prayers go out for the family. Cassandra was one of those people that leave an imprint with you when you made her acquaintance. May God comfort you during your time bereavment.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Cassandra's passing, she was a good friend and study partner, thru our four years of study. She always had a warm smile and a big heart for everyone. I am truly sadden by this news, and I will infor all of her(our study parterns) Although I have not seen her since graduation day, we all formed a bond that will never be forgotten! God always has a plan for us, I know she worked hard down here, but there is Social Work above to be done. My prayers and God's blessing goes out to you her family.

“ To the family of my friend, Cassandra:

I am so sorry to hear of Cassandra's passing. Due to my overseas obligations, I just learned about her passing. I worked along with Cassandra at HealthPlus of Michigan, and we also earned our Master of Social Work degrees together at Eastern Michigan University. I cannot tell you how wonderful and special Cassandra was to me. When she walked into a room and smiled it made everyone's day. Cassandra truly made the world a better place, and we are all better people for having been blessed with her presence. I don't know why God took her home; only He knows that. I do know that her spirit will always be with us. I pray to the Lord to give all of you the strength to get through this very difficult time. Please know that if you need anything I am always here. God bless!
