“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event that it's called an enemy in the Bible at I Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I write this note about Cecilia. She was a loved and cherished part of our family for over 30 years. When I am together with my brothers we always talk about Cecilia, our memories of her and how much she meant to us while we were growing up. I am truly sorry for your loss. She was a most special person.

“ I am truly sorry for the lost of your loved one. Even though I did not know Mrs. Mastin personally my condolences goes out to you and your family. Often during this time we turn to God and His scriptures for comfort. The scripture that I love to read is at Is 25:8 which assures us that God will swallow up death forever. I hope this scripture brings you comfort as well.
