MOSLEY, Mrs. Ceolia - Age 93, passed away on Monday, November 3, 2025, at Hurley - Flint. Family hour 10:00 AM Saturday, November 15, 2025, at Second Chance Church, 2070 W. Coldwater Rd., with funeral service commencing at 11:00 AM. Rev. Derrick Aldridge, officiating. Interment Flint Memorial Park Cemetery, 9506 N. Dort Hwy, Mt. Morris, MI. Friends and pallbearers will assemble at the funeral home 10:00 AM Saturday. Mrs. Mosley will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, 906 W. Flint Park Blvd. and may be viewed from 12:00 PM - 6:00 PM Friday.

Mother Ceolia Mosley was born in Hughes, Arkansas, the daughter of Lelea and Jimmie McGee. Father LD Farrow. In 1950, Mother Ceolia married the love of her life and in this union 6 children were born. Mother Ceolia also played a special role in helping raise her younger sister Cleora. In 1953 the Mosley family made Flint Michigan their home. Mother continued her education through the Flint Community Schools and proudly earned her GED from Flint Northwestern. Always eager to learn, she took additional classes in sewing, cooking, ceramics, and more; Skills she enjoyed sharing with her family and friends.

Shortly after moving to Michigan, Mother joined Foss Avenue Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Avery Aldridge, where she served faithfully for many years. She later transferred her membership to Second Chance Church under Pastor Derrick Aldridge continuing her commitment to serve and fellowship. She served faithfully at both Church's as Director of Culinary Arts. She was a dedicated member of the Mission Group and active participant in the MLA Sunday School class where her kind leadership and joyful spirit touched many lives.

Mother Mosley was employed at Flint Osteopathic Hospital as a senior level cook for over 25 years. Her dedication, skills, and strong work ethic earned her great respect among her co-workers and those she served. She brought warmth and care into her work just as she did in every aspect of her life. She was a valuable member of the Holbrook Block Club and Flint Neighborhood Coalition and was known for her generosity and community spirit. She loved giving from the heart often gifting her homemade peanut brittle to family friends and neighbors.

Mother Mosley had a passion for life and many interests that brought her joy. She loved gardening, fishing, traveling, watching old Westerns and reading the bible. She was famous for her delicious cooking, especially her dressing, which everyone looked forward to during the holidays. She took great pride in keeping one of the most beautiful yards on her block. Her garden was always full of fresh fruits and vegetables which she gladly shared with anyone who asked. She also enjoyed shopping, going out to lunch, and spending quality time with her children and grandchildren.

Mother Ceolia Mosley leaves to cherish her memory and continue her legacy: one devoted daughter, Juanita Mosley; loving son, Raymond Morris Mosley; 2 step-children, Ernestine Mosley Cook and Leon Bobo; 3 grandsons, Rodney (Michelle) Mosley, Samuel (Mari Jo) Mosley and Christopher Russell; 4 granddaughters, Kandice (Michael) Thomas, Karyn Boutte', Makayla Mosley, and Jakyiah Grant; great-grandchildren, Kelvin Thompson, Daylin Skinner, Kymberli Langston, Cassidy Traylor; great-great grandchildren, Lennox and Anakin Green, Phoenix and Meila Reed, and Zaire Thompson; 4 sisters, faithful, caring, and loving sister, Cleora MaGee, Laura Stennis, Kim Farrow and Karla Avant; 2 brothers, James (Elaine) Farrow and Arthur (Diane) McGee; 2 sisters-in-law, Hattie Gatewood and Mary Mitchell; a host of nieces nephews and cousins.

Mother Mosley was preceded in death by her husband, Washington Sam Mosley; daughters, Shirley and Betty Jean Mosley and Linda Mosley-Scott; son, Samuel Mosley; father, Jimmie McGee; mother, Lelea McGee; father, L.D. Farrow; siblings, Jimmie McGee Jr., Blanchie James, O.D., Onie and Sheila Farrow.
