“ No one knows the pain that your family can feel until faced with the same obstacle. God said in his word that he wouldn't put more on you than you can bear and weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning. Our prayers go out sincerely to your family. Continue to trust God because he has all the answers. Love You All!!

“ Charles was a great friend of mine who got me into cars. He lived in my old neighborhood off Coldwater Rd. I was already a car buff but Charles intensified it. The first time I ever went 150 mph was with Charles in his sweet 72 black Stingray. That Corvette was FAST!! He use to race on the street but after a while nobody would race him but because they would lose. God bless him! I know he is in a better place. I will miss him. Steve
