“ Though separated by physical distance, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. I share the burden of this immense grief. Uncle Charles was such a wonderful person and I shall always be thankful to God for allowing my life to be blessed by his presence. I remember fondly how he reminded me of his amazing kindness, often saying, "I love you, niece."

We realize you remain with us - simply smiling down from above, protected by our Lord and Savior's love. May your memories give us all strength.

Peace, prayers and blessings. We love you, Uncle Charles.

“"Forget About It" is the first phrase I heard from this gentleman's mouth. Behind that was phrase was a room full of laughter and love. I soon found that this gentleman's was "Charlie Brown" one of my dearest friend's brother. I found instantly that this gentle giant was a man with a big heart. That weekend that we all shared if he took one polaroid he took 300. He captured every wonderful moment of that family filled weekend. If it appeared that anyone was about to say or do anything that may not be appropriate my new friend Charlie Brown would raise up and say "forget about it" and it was forgotten.

This fine man brought joy unspeakable joy to most that he encountered. I count myself blessed, better than blessed to have had his presence grace my life. "To every thing there is a season" I am so grateful for the season of my friend Charlie Brown from Flint, Michigan.

Charlie Brown, you have fought the good fight, you have finished the course. May your soul forever rest in peace, "FORGET ABOUT IT!"

“RIP my loving brother! I thank God for placing such a loving and caring brother in my life to live on in my spirit. I also thank you for the things that you have given me that can never be replaced. The Lord says fifty-five is enough. I am glad that we were able to give our flowers to one another while you were with us. God bless you Tremaine, V.V., Charles Jr. and Charles Wright.

“ RIP Uncle Charles, a very loving and forgiving man. Uncle Charles loved his family with all his heart and he was able to look past our faults and see our needs. I pray that his love for family and his forgiving heart can live on through us as a tribute to his memory...forever.
