“ I have many fond memories of you, Bobby, Myron, Uncle Charlie and Aunt May when you all lived on the South-side. It was a special time when Aunt Mandy would come from Tennessee during the Holidays and she would bring gifts for us all.

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that we can never get use to. In my times of sorry I have found comfort in John 5:28,29 which says that one day we will see our loved ones again.

“ Dear Charles, III and Nina:

We are remembering you and your family in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. May, God give you the strength you need for the days ahead. We will be praying for both of you and your family.

We hope this poem bring you some comfort:

Dad's Love Remains

Those we love remain with us, for love, itself lives on.

Cherished memories never fade, because a loved one's gone.

For as long as there is a memory, they will live on in the heart.

“ To Mr. Bufords family, words cannot express the sorrow I felt when I heard of his passing. Although I only knew him a short while, I am thankful to have met such a wonderful person. He and I both shared the love and passion for Social Work and he was very proud of his accomplishment. I would like you all to know that he LOVED you all very much! While dialysing he would talk about the love he had for his "baby girl" and grandchildren. He was also very happy to be in the presence of his Son. He truly loved you all and I am thankful that God allowed me to spend time with him while he was here. He will forever remain in my heart and know that I am continually praying for your strenght in the Lord!During this time. You were blessed to have him!
