“ Mr Connor was one of the best fathers a child could have. Me and my brother had to go thru the foster system when our mom was going thru her problems. Well we were abused horribly as little kids in and out of these homes until we came across Mr. Connor and his late beautiful wife Helen. They took us in and made our life normal we had never experienced that genuine love...their kids accepted us as their brother and sister we have always loved him and his wife and family for all that they have done for us...a true man of God thank u Mr. Connor for showing us love i will never forget you....
