“ I have know Lawanda and Charles since 4th grade, we grew up in the same neighborhood and Lawanda has been one of my life long childhood friends today. Even though life has happened along the way, the love and friendship has never been lost throughout the years. We are family by love and I want to express my deepest and sincere condolences to Mom, Wanda and lil Charles on the loss of Charles, our brother, son and father. Love, Peace and Strength.
