“ My condolences to all family members. TC was like a brother in law to me because him and my sister Leshele Johnson were together for many years. I know he was deeply in love with my sister and he will be missed deeply. TC was always there to help and that he did. I have nothing but great memories of him and yes he could play spades!!! I thought I was the best until he showed me I wasn't. He was there always for my sister and also my mother. I will always hold a special place in my heart. May you rest in peace and enjoy the heavenly place that opens the doors for you on your new journey.

“ T.C. had such a big heart, he would help anyone that was in need. He was a "Wonderful Person" Hell of Spades player, had a beautiful singing voice, could work circles around people half his age, best slow dancer I've known. Most importantly, he loved his family. I thank God I was blessed to have meet you and that I became part of your family.. Much love and Respect, forever Mi Amor..
