“ Duane you helped give our child life. We have a beautiful daughter Jamie. I'm so blessed to have met you. I cherish and have always loved you. Our daughter is so lucky to have had you in her life. Dear God she loved you as much as you did her. We are all blessed today because of you. You will be truly missed but I'm thankful for the fact we always said we loved each other. You were such a child of God. I love you for that. You picked me up so many times. I thank you. But even more I love you Duane. Rest easy...

“ Duane as I knew him was my childhood friend and neighbor in Colonial Squares. I resided by the basketball court and he would come early in the morning knock on my door and say ready to practice on dribbling with left hand if you can get around me you will be a unstoppable point guard! He would slap my left hand lay up over the fence and get the ball and say keep trying! 😊 I know this man is my Angel and I miss you man dearly and forever you are in my ❤️!

“ I heard the Christmas song " I saw mommy kissing Santa Clause" and it reminded me of the time when we sang that song during a Christmas program at Mary D. Mitchell elementary school and Duane, being one of the biggest kids in elementary school was chosen to be Santa Clause standing underneath the mistletoe. Duanes infectious smile will never be forgotten. Rest In Peace my friend! 🕊️
