“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies, it's very painful. But the Bible talks about doing away with this pain at Rev 21;4. May the God of comfort, comfort your family at this time.

“ Granddaddy I'm really going to miss you. Out of the times shared with you I will remember them the most. It seems so hard to just let go and say good-bye. It was hard enough seeing you sick in the hospital on your last couple of days. So I'm not attending your funeral only because I can't stand to see you like that. I know God has a time for when everyone must go, just not you. Well I didn't expect for you to be gone so quick. Now when I do things in honor, they will be to honor you. Don't worry I'll always have you in my prayers even though your not physically with us. Your in all our hearts spiritually. Your never to be forgotten. Granddad your strength is in the whole family and will be dearly cherished. I'm always going to be your oldest granddaughter. I love you Granddaddy.

Rom 6:23, For the wages of Sin is Death, but the gift of God is Eternal Life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

*From your oldest granddaughter,
Katherine D. Ayers*

“ Am I dreaming? This all feels so unreal. It seems like I was just talking to you yesterday. I wish I had more time to spend with you. Who would've thought you would leave us so soon? It wasn't long ago that you were holding my hand and walking me through my teenage life and most of my adult life. Who would've ever woke up and thought that you'd be gone the next day. That I wouldn't be able to call or see you and say I Love You Daddy. Now you've gone home to our true father. Your pain and struggle is no more. To see you cry made my heart feel weak because I knew I couldn't do anything to change the pain that took you away. At first, finding out that you were hurting made me lose strength, but now I see that this all happened for a reason. It is going to take sometime getting used to the fact that your not with us, but resting in God's Hands. I Love You Daddy.

Words from your oldest daughter, LaTasha N. Jones.

“ In My Heart I thought of you so many times today, but of course that is nothing new... I thought about you yesterday, and days before that too. I think of you in silence, I often vision your face. All I have are memories, and a picture just in case . Memories are my keepsake, with which I'll never part. God has you in Heaven, I have you in my heart.
